I am writing in regards to the web designer position at Pentagram. I saw the job listing and was immediately drawn to apply, as Pentagram has an excellent reputation for its creative visual designs.

As an intern at Pentagram, I was able to work with experienced web designers to create beautiful layouts, interfaces, and visual assets for a variety of clients' websites. Through these experiences, I have learned a great deal about mobile-first design, which will prove valuable in my role as web designer at your company.

Some of my notable achievements include:

- Contributing to the success of the web design team for the development and redesign of 3 client websites in HTML and PHP
- Developing responsive user interfaces and compelling visual assets.
- I have also completed an academic project to design a custom education website using HTML and Java.

I believe that I can be a valuable asset to your team and contribute to the continued success of your organization. I am eager to utilize my skills in graphic design and UI design to help develop high-quality websites for your clients. I look forward to speaking with you further about this opportunity. Thanks for taking the time to consider my request.

Sincerely,

Laban, Tom Jones D.
